OnlineHorseCollege.com provides training in the horse industry and all training and assessment is to be done in the horse industry environment. Skills should be assessed in line with a professional working in the horse industry. During assessment the student should reflect this in their behaviour

The 3.R.04 Basic Riding assessments should reflect a horse industry employee who rides horses as part of their employment. This does not include any type of specialist riding, including dressage, jumping, western or performance riding.
